

Responsible Business Practices

Our commitment to responsible business practices means that we aim to create a culture of honesty, respect and accountability across all levels of the company. We focus on following best practices in governance and executive compensation, upholding ethical behaviour in all of our relationships, integrating the management of corporate responsibility into our business, and achieving high rates of regulatory compliance.

Highlights

Welcomed new Directors to our Board
Set a Board diversity target

.....

Challenges

Fully integrating Raging River's assets into all of our processes and levels of compliance

.....

Looking Forward

Engage with investors on executive compensation (Board activity)